

IbletzFuller

03/25/2022

INF653

Challenges I faced while building the midterm project

I have had difficulty allocating time and mental energy to this project. I find it very hard to focus on my work, and I have been struggling to keep up with the class all semester. This submission is extremely incomplete, but I would rather turn in something than leave the submission empty. I do not know if I have what it takes to finish the class, and I am considering abandoning my studies altogether.